INTRODUCTION

“Staff Rules - Advisers on Long-term Assignments, January 2019” part I and II and the related annexes (collective referred to as the “Staff Regulations”) describe the conditions of employment for persons posted by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark/Danida on contracts of not less than 24 months duration as Advisers. This regulation also applies for postings in Europa, South Korea and USA however with a few modifications. The term “Danida”, the Ministry and the Embassy is for the purpose of these Staff Regulations synonymous with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The term “Host country” is synonymous with “Duty Station” which means the country where the adviser will be working.

The Staff Regulations are published in English. The Staff Regulations form an integral part of the contract of employment entered under Danish law between the Ministry and the Adviser.

Advisers are required during the course of the contract to notify the Embassy or the Ministry forthwith in writing of any significant changes in their personal circumstances.

Local conditions and circumstances may necessitate that the Embassy impose a restrictive interpretation on certain provisions in the Staff Regulations, for example in order to maintain acceptable standards of accommodation or in the interests of personal security.

The rules governs contracts entered from 1. January 2019. These rules shall be signed on last page.

1. CONTRACT

A contract of employment shall be entered into between the Adviser and the Ministry before the Adviser may take up the post. Contracts are normally entered for a term of two or three years and are governed by the laws of Denmark, disregarding rules on conflicts of laws.

The contract of employment is conditional on the acceptance of the services of the Adviser by the designated host country at the Duty Station. Should this acceptance not be accorded, the contract will be void and cease forthwith. The acceptance may take up to several months. The Contract will not begin, and the adviser may not start working before the approval is obtained. The contract applies exclusively to the post specified in the contract and does not oblige the Ministry to transfer the said contract or any rights pertaining to it to any other post whatsoever.

The contract includes a calculation of basic salary and allowances set out the terms of employment.

The contract may also for posting to some countries be subject to approved physical and psychological testing.

The contract of employment is prepared based on information provided by the Adviser at the time of recruitment. The Adviser has a duty to notify the Ministry of any subsequent changes pertaining to any entitlement due under the contract. This duty includes notifying the Ministry of any benefit receivable by the Adviser's spouse/partner in connection with her/his own personal contract of employment, if any, at the Duty Station, which might duplicate a similar entitlement under the Adviser's contract of employment with the Ministry i.e. free housing, school fee, insurances, travel costs and removal of goods. In such case, the Ministry reserves the right to cancel the entitlement in the Adviser's contract of employment without further notice.

The Adviser must avoid conflicts of interest in relation to their employment with the Ministry and in their relations with the host organisation and government. In consequence, the Adviser may not enter into any other form of paid employment nor pursue any private business interests which may be construed as affecting their impartiality as Adviser. In case of doubt, the Adviser is required to consult the Danish Embassy.

Taxation

All amounts specified in the Staff Regulations and the contract of employment are gross amounts. The tax implications of the employment to the Advisor are of no concern to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs will, however, withhold tax, social contributions etc. and report to the tax authorities if required by law. Pursuant to Danish legislation as defined by Section 33A of the Tax Assessment Act persons liable for tax in Denmark, including Advisers posted abroad for at least six months, may apply for exemption from tax on income earned abroad. All Advisers are personally responsible for clarifying their taxable status and obligations directly with the Danish tax authorities and if applicable with the relevant authority in their country of domicile or permanent residence and their host country of the Duty Station.

It is the sole responsibility of the adviser to pay all and full applicable pension/social contributions, as required by any law and regulation.

The adviser is fully responsible for correct and timely payment of all applicable taxes and duties and undertakes to ensure that all tax obligations are duly observed by the Adviser. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs does not offer any exemption from payment of taxes, neither will the Ministry undertake negotiations or communication with tax authorities on behalf of the adviser. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs shall not take any responsibility or liability or obligation whatsoever to reimburse any taxes which may be imposed on the Adviser in connection with any salary or payments made under the contract of employment.

2. BASIC SALARY AND PENSION CONTRIBUTION.

The Adviser will be paid a basic salary and an additional pension contribution as detailed below. A full specification of all salary components and allowances to be paid to the Adviser will form an integral part of the contract of employment.

Post classification

There are the following post levels:

Junior Adviser

Adviser

Senior Adviser (N2)

Senior Adviser (N1)

The post classification is done before any recruitment is initiated and is based on an assessment of the qualifications required, the extent and complexity of the responsibilities to be undertaken, and the organisational structure in which the Adviser will work. The post classification is therefore an independent process not affected by the qualifications or experience of the Adviser subsequently selected to fill it.

Pension contribution or allowance

All Advisers are entitled either to a standard pension contribution or to a pension allowance, at the percentage rate at 17.1 % of the BASIC salary defined above.

If the Adviser is a Danish national, the Ministry will pay the pension contribution directly into a pension plan in Denmark chosen by the Adviser, provided it leads to a regular lifelong payments from the date of retirement ("livsvarig rate pension") and includes disablement payment to the Adviser. Pension plans in Denmark are subject to the approval of the Agency for the Modernisation of Public Administration who also decides on any application to cash in the pension plan before it matures.

If the Adviser is not a Danish national a pension contribution allowance will be calculated using the same percentage rate and paid directly to the Adviser as part of the Advisers monthly salary package.

The tax treatment of the Adviser's pension scheme is the sole responsibility of the Adviser and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs is not liable for any adverse consequences, including tax consequences, of pension arrangements made by the Adviser.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs encourages the Adviser to obtain professional advice prior to making pension arrangements.

By accepting employment under these Staff Regulations, the Adviser acknowledges and accepts that the Ministry of Foreign Affairs has no obligations towards the Adviser and his/her next of kin in relation to old-age pension, sickness or disability benefits etc.

Payment of salaryEntitlement

The Adviser is entitled to salary from the date on which the contract begins and until the last day of the contract. Initial and final travel must be carried out using the most economically and most direct route possible, and diversions or prolongation of the journey for personal convenience does not entitle to pay or benefits for the extra time incurred.

Disbursement

Salary is paid monthly in arrears.

If the Adviser is a Danish national, the payment will automatically be disbursed into the NEM-ID-account. If the Adviser is a non-Danish citizen, the salary disbursement will be made into the Adviser's bank account of choice. For foreign transfers a transfer fee might occur which will be deducted from the Adviser's pay.

Any further transfer of funds from the said account is the sole responsibility of the Adviser and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs cannot assist in nor pay for such services.

Initial advance

The Adviser may request the Ministry of Foreign Affairs for a salary advance once the contract has been signed. An advance of DKK 100,000 may be granted, for purchase and transportation of a car or other establishment expenses to set up home at the Duty Station. No further advances can be given.

The advance will be recovered from the Adviser's salary payments in 18 monthly instalments or faster if the contract is less than 18 months. Should the contract be terminated for any reason and by either party before the advance has been fully repaid, the Ministry will deduct any outstanding balance from final payments due to the Adviser.

The Embassy will be entitled to request the Adviser to use the vehicle for duty travel at the destination, in which case mileage will be reimbursed as specified by the Danish Agency for the Modernisation of Public Administration.

3. ALLOWANCES AND OTHER BENEFITS

Adviser allowance

An Adviser allowance of DKK 78.902,94 annually (October 2018 level) is paid to all Advisers, in recognition of their expected substantial work experience.

Personal allowance

An additional fixed personal allowance of DKK 52.458,63 (October 2018 level) is paid annually to all Advisers, due to substantial work load.

OTHER STANDARD BENEFITS:

Free of charge household removals

The free removal must be arranged through Alfa Quality Moving A/S (at present the contract holder with the Ministry.) The Ministry will cover the cost of household removals in the volume specified below from the Adviser's primary place of residence at the time of application to the Duty Station on taking up a post, and back to the primary place of residence as stated by the Adviser at the time of employment.

Removal of household back to domicile should however be done before 4 months after the end of contract.

Removal costs will be paid for relocation from one Duty Station to another under a new contract of employment by the Ministry.

A representative of Alfa Quality Moving A/S s will contact the Adviser before the removal is to take place to arrange the practical details, and to advise on any supplementary freight the Adviser might intend to move at her/his own expense.

Storage expenses will not be refunded.

On taking up the post, the Ministry will cover the costs of door-to-door shipment by surface freight of household removals goods and effects. For an Adviser with dependents within a limit of 50 cubic meters (cbm) if the family members are taking up permanent residence for at least 6 months at the Duty Station. For an Adviser with no dependents the removal limit is 25 cubic meters (cbm). A smaller volume than 30 or 15 cubic meters may not be converted into air freight unless air transport proves to be cheaper than sea freight

On relocation back to the primary place of residence at the time of application or to a new recruitment, the Ministry will cover similar costs at the Ministry's expense.

Should furnished accommodation be provided, the normal entitlement to refund of household removal allowance will be reduced by 50%. In exceptional cases where reliable surface freight is not possible, airfreight may be authorized by the Ministry on the recommendation of Alfa Quality Moving A/S.

If a couple are both posted to the same Duty Station on separate contracts as Adviser, Embassy posted staff member, international organization, NGO, other bilateral donors or private company employee, any removal allowance payable by such employer as contribution to the family removal should be disclosed to the Ministry. The Ministry will only cover the removal costs to which the family would have been entitled under the Ministry contract less the amount of any such parallel contribution or allowance to avoid duplication of benefits.

If the Adviser moves from one Ministry posting to another, entitlement to household removals shall be determined in advance in consultation with the Ministry.

Advisers with permanent residence in the country of service are not entitled to household removals.

The entitlement to household removal arranged by Alfa Quality Moving A/S may under no circumstances be converted to a cash payment in lieu of removals or to a refund the cost of removals arranged independently by the Adviser through another removing company. Moreover, the entitlement to household removal may be forfeited if the employment is terminated due to the Adviser's breach of contract or if the Adviser terminates the contract more than 50% before agreed date of termination.

Temporary accommodation

The Adviser will be entitled to claim refund of the cost of temporary accommodation for a period up to four weeks whilst looking for suitable housing. The Embassy at the duty station will advise on a reasonable accommodation rate at a hotel or for a service flat.

Free housing

One option is where the Adviser will be provided with unfurnished housing at the Duty Station. This arrangement means that the Embassy pays the rent and running costs directly to the landlord.

Another option is where the Adviser rents suitable accommodation directly on the private market within an estimated average price range approved by the embassy or the Ministry and may be subject to Embassy/hosting organisation endorsement of the standard and the security aspects of the intended residence.

The Adviser will enter a rental agreement directly with the owner of the property or the legal agent, to whom the rent shall be paid directly by the Adviser. The Adviser will be fully responsible towards the landlord and the Ministry cannot be held responsible for any claims vis-à-vis the Adviser and the landlord. Once, the Adviser has entered a lease agreement, the salary will be adjusted so that the adviser will be refunded the actual rent he/she pays.

No rental cost is payable to an Adviser who occupies accommodation at the Duty Station owned by the Adviser or by her/his immediate family members. Failure to disclose such ownership will render the Adviser liable to refund any housing cost already paid out, and to legal consequences.

Housing rented by the adviser

The adviser will be refunded every three - six month the documented cost for house operating allowances.

The Adviser will be required to pay bills for household running costs at the Duty Station, i.e. supply of gas, water and electricity, garbage disposal, and guards or security services, directly to the supplier or via the landlord. Internet cost is not reimbursed.

The Ministry covers personal travel costs from the primary place of residence at the time of application to the Duty Station on taking up a post, and back to the primary place of residence as stated by the Adviser when leaving the post. The Ministry will not cover the cost of extra baggage or transport of pets. Costs are paid to the Adviser, the spouse/partner and their dependent children under 21 who take up permanent residence with the Adviser at the Duty Station. Duty travel

If the planned duty travel is outside the country of service, it should in addition be approved by the Embassy. In accordance with the policy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs all refundable duty travel must take place in the most economical and appropriate manner, using discounts and bonus schemes where available. Detailed guidelines are shown in Annex 2.

Use of vehicles

Vehicles financed by the Ministry and operated by the host organisation or government may only be used on official business and not for private transport. Violation of this rule is considered breach of contract. If an Adviser uses her/his personally owned vehicle for duty travel outside the Duty Station, reimbursement of costs may be obtained from the Embassy.

Compassionate leave travel

Upon application to the Europæiske A/S insurance company, an Adviser or her/his spouse may receive refund for travel costs for compassionate leave travel necessitated by serious illness or death in the immediate family, i.e. spouse, children and parents. In deciding on such cases, the Embassy will consider whether the purpose of the requested compassionate leave could be served by granting leave in extension of reimbursable duty travel already imminent or planned.

Compassionate leave travel support will only be given once in connection with any given family member to be visited.

EDUCATION COSTS:

The Ministry refunds fees in connection with children's school attendance starting with reception class up to and including grade 9 until finalized upper secondary education ("ungdomsuddannelse") but not beyond the month in which the child turns 21 years of age. No other fees are eligible for refund. Please refer to Annex 3.

Advisers accrue entitlement to paid holiday in accordance with the provisions of the Danish Holiday Act (in Danish: ferieloven).

Holiday must be planned with due regard to the interests of the Ministry and the specific circumstances and requirements pertaining to the Adviser's assignment and the local host organisation or partner. All holiday must be pre-approved by the Embassy.

The Ministry may with two weeks' notice request that the Adviser takes (in full or in part) accrued holiday.

Advisers must every six months report to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs with information on the dates and number of holidays that have to be taken in order that a reduction can be made of their remuneration in so far as the Advisers have not accrued entitlement to paid holiday. The report should be signed by the embassy or by the place where he/she works.

Upon termination of the contract period, holiday allowance for accrued but untaken holiday will be settled in accordance with the provisions of the Danish Holiday Act; either by payment into the Danish Holiday Fund (in Danish: Feriekonto) or by payment directly to the adviser (non Danish nationals.)

In addition to holiday pursuant to the Danish Holiday Act, the Adviser accrues entitlement to two additional weeks' paid holiday per year in total 7 weeks. 8. PREPARATION FOR SERVICE IN A DEVELOPING COUNTRY

(See part II, Annex 4)

Prior to posting

Advisers are required to complete the Danida Anti-corruption course before departure.

<http://um.dk/en/about-us/e-learning/anti-corruption/>

Depending on the duty station, the Ministry will send the Adviser the obligatory courses that must be completed before taking up the post.

It could include a safety and first aid course as well as the basic security and Travel Safety course. The latter courses are e-learning courses. In some countries the advisers may also have to go through HEAT (Hostile Environment Awareness Training) Conduct after Capture (CAC) courses and/or a psychological screening

For certain positions in areas with poor health facilities, the Advisers are strongly advised to be examined by a medical doctor in order to be assessed whether he/she is fit for the working under the said conditions at the Duty Station.

During posting

Advisers may participate in relevant seminars and courses arranged by the Ministry and the Embassy in the country concerned.

9. INTERNAL REPORTING

(See part II, Annex 5)

On arrival in the country of service the Adviser and (as applicable) her/his spouse/partner may be given an introduction at the Embassy regarding both the work to be performed and also practical and special conditions in the country of service.

Approximately three months after arrival in the country of service the Adviser and (as applicable) spouse/partner is/will be required to draw up an inception report.

Shortly prior to contract expiry a final report will be required. This report should be forwarded via the Embassy to the Ministry at DANIDAadvisers@um.dk.

At regular intervals during the contract period and shortly before the end of the assignment the partner institution, the Adviser and the Embassy will hold a performance dialogue, as further described below.

Prior to final departure from the country of service, the adviser and (if applicable) spouse/partner may request a debriefing with the Embassy.

10. PERFORMANCE DIALOGUE WITH THE HOST ORGANISATION

(See part II, Annex 6)

For practical and legal reasons, the contract of employment is entered between the Adviser as employee, and the Ministry as employer. The services performed by the Adviser will normally, be delivered to a third party, i.e. the host organisation, and the success of the assignment will thus be dependent on close cooperation and dialogue between all three parties. To facilitate and maintain such dialogue the Ministry has a performance dialogue tool, which is further described in annex 6.

The tool is designed to help the three cooperation partners review a number of key factors, such as the continued relevance of the job description, the intended work plan for the Adviser, and the actual institutional context in which the Adviser is working. The performance dialogue also gives the Adviser feedback on her/his perceived performance and provides a structured basis for mutual agreement on adjustment or alignments, which might contribute to optimise outcomes. The performance dialogue tool should not, however, be used as a means to resolve actual conflicts.

The performance dialogue meeting should normally be held 6 months after the Adviser has taken up her/his duties, and repeated at 12 monthly intervals during the remaining contract period. A final meeting should normally be held shortly before the end of the contract period.

11. THE ADVISER'S RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

IN RELATION TO THE HOST COUNTRY OF SERVICE:

Denmark has entered host agreements with most of the countries to which Advisers are posted. Such agreements contain a section on the rights and privileges, obligations and legal status of Advisers in the country of service. Specific programme and project agreements may also contain a section pertaining to Advisers. The Embassy should always be consulted on specific conditions applying in the country of service.

Advisers and members of their families should without exception refrain from participation in political activity or manifestation in the country of service.

Non-discrimination. The Adviser will not discriminate in respect of gender, colour of skin, religion, culture, education, social status, ethnic belonging or national origin or any other status.

Denmark is a signatory to the Washington Convention of 3 March 1973 on international trade in endangered species. Import or trade in endangered species is illegal and will constitute a gross breach of the contract of employment.

Respect for Human Rights

Advisers shall in all respect both professional and private exhibit a scrupulous respect for and observance of Human Rights. Should an Adviser be in doubt as to whether a work assignment is compatible with the above provisions, the Adviser shall refuse to participate and immediately consult the Embassy.

IN RELATION TO THE MINISTRY:

Avoidance of conflict of interest

Advisers may not enter into any other paid or unpaid employment or pursue private business interests during the contract period without the prior written consent of the Embassy. The same applies to other activities taking up significant part of the Adviser's working capacity or which can adversely affect the reputation of the Adviser or the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

This rule is designed to prevent conflict of interest and to ensure transparency.

The Adviser's powers in contractual matters

Advisers may not enter into binding legal agreements on behalf of the Ministry, the programme or the project without prior written authorization from the Embassy. Rental agreements may, however, be entered on a personal basis in the exceptional circumstances described elsewhere in the Conditions, and if authorised by the Embassy.

Confidentiality

Advisers shall observe confidentiality with regard to information respecting their service that has been designated as confidential by law or other valid provision, by the legitimate owners, or if disclosure would cause significant damage to public or private interests. This duty of confidentiality continues to apply after the termination of the contract of employment.

Return of official documents and materials

Files, documents, books and other official materials placed in the Adviser's custody in connection with the performance of her/his duties shall be returned to the original owner at the end of the contract, unless otherwise agreed with the Embassy.

No form of gifts, goods or services, or payments may be given or received by Advisers to facilitate, or in connection with, the performance of their duties. Such transactions may lead to allegations of illegal or corrupt conduct. Advisers are required to familiarise themselves with and to strictly observe the current code of conduct or policy guidelines on corruption adopted by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. These guidelines are available on the Ministry website or from the Danish Embassy, which should be consulted on matters of interpretation or best practice. Allegations of illegal or corrupt conduct may necessitate a suspension of the contract of employment pending investigation. Proven cases will be regarded as gross breach of the contract of employment and result in dismissal and possible legal proceedings. See attachment to the contract and <http://um.dk/en/about-us/economy-and-results/anti-corruptions-policy/>

Drafting of Last Will Declaration

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs calls for the adviser to draft a Last Will statement. The declaration is stored on its own initiative.

Proof of life

When assigned to countries with hostile environment it is recommended to issue a Proof of Life document before posting. This is kept confidential at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The purpose is to confirm the identity of the sender, in case of kidnapping. A new Proof of Life document must be filled in if the information changes during posting.

Data protection Policy

The Ministry's data protection policy can be found here. <http://um.dk/en/about-us/organisation/contact-information/the-ministry-of-foreign-affairs-of-denmark-personal-data-policy/the-ministry-of-foreign-affairs-of-denmarks-privacy-policy-for-subscribers-to>

If this involves travel, Europæiske A/S may, subject to prior agreement, authorise referral to a local specialist in tropical diseases.

As an assessment of the nature and extent of the risk of disease in a geographical area will always contain a degree of uncertainty, it cannot be guaranteed that there will be full concurrence in the advice given when contacting different sources of medical opinion.
